over 800,000 New CHEVROLET Sixes on the road since Jan. 1st!

Today's Chevrolet is scoring a huge nationwide success because it represents one of the most sensational achievements in automotive history—a Six in the price range of the four.

The Chevrolet six-cylinder engine delivers its power freely, quietly, and easily throughout the entire speed range—delightfully free from annoying vibration and rumble. Combined with this remarkable six-cylinder smoothness are equally remarkable speed, power and acceleration—and an economy of better than twenty miles to the gallon.

In addition to such sensational performance the Chevrolet Six offers the outstanding advantages of Bodies by Fisher. And no car ever provided a more impressive array of modern convenience features—adjustable driver's seat and VV one-piece windshield in closed models, easy action clutch and gear-shift, ball bearing steering, and instrument panel complete even to theft-proof Electrolock and electric motor temperature indicator!

BRYANT POND

Henry H. Russ died Saturday, July 6, at 3:10 p. m., at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. C. Linn, at Bethel.

He had been in failing health for several months, but was confined to his bed less than three weeks.

Henry Hamilton Russ was born in Woodstock, Dec. 27, 1844. He was 84 years old on the same day of the month as his mother's and he was the same age.

The son of James and Mary (Adams) Russ, he was the last of one sister.

Until one and a half years ago, when he and his wife came to their daughter's home here, he passed his entire life in his native town.

He was educated in her schools, served as road commissioner and as chairman of the school committee for a long time.

For years he has been a member of the West Paris lodge of Odd Fellows, and was also a supporter of the Baptist Church at Bryant Pond.

Mr. Russ was a good farmer, who acquired a lot of property, and most of all loved his work. He took great pride in his growing crops and well fed stock.

In young manhood, he married Miss Alice J. Cotton of Woodstock, who survives him. Four children were born to them: Mary, wife of Perry Lapham of Bethel; Stella, wife of Asa Sessions of Abbott's Mills; Walter, of Auburn, and Albert, of Woodstock, all of whom survive.

He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Nettie Bragg of North Edgecomb, by five grandchildren, Mrs. Colan Fuller of Portland, Mrs. Leslie Fuller of Upton, Jesse and Irvin Russ of Auburn, and Esther Lapham of Bethel. There are also four great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Baptist Church at Bryant Pond, conducted by Rev. Mr. Young, the pastor.

Miss Myrtle Bacon of Boston arrived here Saturday, June 29. She will spend her vacation at her summer home, the "Little Jay."

Kissed A Girl One Night On The Steps

She kinder quivered, gasped, trembled, waited, then left me standing there. Mighty nice girl, I liked her, didn't want to hurt her feelings, Maybe I had done wrong. Went around next night and apologized. DARN NEAR LOST THE GIRL.

Now kissing a girl or removing a dent from a damaged auto "ain't no job for an amateur."

A finished job is worth the time and no apology will be needed. We also install auto glass.
